Public Invited to Speak Out about the Concerns Surrounding the Buckeye Lake Dam

The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners invites the public to speak out about their concerns surrounding the Buckeye Lake Dam. A public meeting will be held on March 17th at 7 pm at Liberty Center, 951 Liberty Drive, in Lancaster. The purpose of the public meeting is for the Commissioners to receive information that can potentially help in offering solutions to the concerns surrounding the Buckeye Lake Dam and keeping Buckeye Lake open.

Commissioner Steve Davis, Board President, stated, "This issue is one of critical significance to the public whether you live at Buckeye Lake, enjoy recreation at Buckeye Lake, or are in any way a part of the community in Fairfield, Licking, or Perry counties. We look forward to hearing from the public and believe that the information received will help the Commission participate as a stakeholder."

In addition to participating in the public meetings, the public is encouraged to visit the Ohio Department of Natural Resources website: <http://ohiodnr.gov>. A recently issued report about the Buckeye Lake Dam is posted on the website.
