FAIRFIELD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS APPOINT COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR

LANCASTER, OH – The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners appointed Mrs. Carri Brown as the new County Administrator today. Mrs. Brown, a certified government financial manager with 25 years of leadership experience in local government, holds a Master of Business Administration from Ohio University and is a Ph.D. candidate. Her appointment is effective Wednesday, June 25.

In her role as County Administrator, Mrs. Brown will serve as the chief administrative official of the county under the direction and supervision of the Board of County Commissioners. Commission President, Mike Kiger, stated, “The time is right for the Commission to appoint a county administrator, and we are thrilled to appoint Mrs. Brown given the dedication and excellence she has demonstrated in county government.”

Mrs. Brown was formerly the Executive Director for the county. She has also served as the Interim JFS Director, the Child Support Enforcement Agency Director, and a Chief Deputy Auditor. She is involved in multiple community organizations and lives in Lancaster.
