

Classical Homeopathic Counseling

Mrs. Ellen Bench a Homeopathic Master Clinician and will be coming from her home state of Montana to teach and explain how homeopathy may benefit your health and well-being. All are welcome to attend these empowering seminars.

November Seminars:

Tuesday, November 11th and Wednesday, November 12th 6:30 – 8:30p.m.

“Identification of Predisposition and Prevention Options”

Why does one member of your family get sinus infections, another vertigo, and another vomit or chronically cough when we have the flu? We get sick where we are weak; one is lungs, another liver/thyroid; another weak heart or bladder. How do you recognize the signs and how do you prevent? Join us for this amazing class on learning how to help the whole family in this great empowering 2 evening presentation! Cost for each segment $30.00 per person totaling $60.00 for the 2 part series. Includes a reusable class packet.

Thursday, November 13th 6:30 – 8:30p.m.

“Detoxing of Threats in our Environment and Food”

MSG, microwave, cell phones, fluoride, x-rays, pesticides, antibiotics and gluten along with other common toxins that reduce our vitality or clarity will be discussed, Bring your questions! Cost $30.00 per person. Note taking guide included.

For more information and to register, contact Leslie Eisel, Events Manager of The Wagnalls Memorial, at leisel@wagnalls.org or 614-837-4765 x126.

This seminar in no way is intended as a substitute for professional medical care. Nothing discussed should be construed by any person to be a diagnosis or treatment for any disease or condition.

Call 406-777-5875 to schedule your Private Consultation with Ms. Bench while she will be in the Columbus area.

Consultations will be held at the

Staybridge Suites Hotel

2890 Airport Drive

Columbus OH

Or contact Ellen when she is here in Ohio

at 406-381-0189