Welcome, James!

CORSA is very pleased to offer online training to our organization. Our Online University is full of courses that have been created with adult learning styles in mind, and each course module is timed for one short session, usually 25-35 minutes in length. By taking advantage of our Online University, you are expressing a strong commitment to your professional and personal development.

Specific courses have been assigned to your University. At the end of most course modules, there will be a quiz to assess your understanding of the information provided.

We are grateful for the opportunity to provide training designed to enhance your work and life experiences.
