LENDY W. DYSART MOTION FOR JUDICIAL RELEASE OVERRULED

On November 4, 2013, Lendy W. Dysart filed for judicial release in case number 2007-CR-0336. The State responded on November 13, 2013, with its Memorandum Contra, opposing the early release of Mr. Dysart.

On August 11, 2008, the Defendant entered a guilty plea to one count of Burglary, one count of Robbery, and one count of Felonious Assault. All were second degree felonies. On October 10, 2008, the Defendant received the following sentence from the Court; Count One: 6 years in the State penal institution, Count Two: 6 years in the State penal institution, and Count Six: 4 years in the State penal institution. The Court further ordered that Count One and Count Two were to be served concurrently to each other and Count Six was to be served consecutively to Count One and Count Two. The Defendant received a total sentence of 10 years in prison. On October 3, 2008, the State filed its Sentencing Memorandum wherein it stated the State was opposed to community control and was opposed to judicial release. The State requested a total prison sentence of 24 years. The crimes in this case were extremely serious.

The Court filed its decision on December 4, 2013, overruling the Defendant's Motion for Judicial Release.

"The State would like to thank all of the victims, family and friends of the victims, bystanders, and concerned citizens of Fairfield County for voicing their opposition on Mr. Dysart's early release. We are thrilled with the decision. This community will be much safer if this Defendant remains in prison," stated Gregg Marx, Prosecuting Attorney.
