Review

The Commissioners met at 9:00 a.m. to review legal issues and pending or future action items and correspondence. Commissioner Davis called the meeting to order with the following Commissioners present via teleconference: Steve Davis, Jeff Fix, and Dave Levacy. Also present were Carri Brown, Rachel Elsea, Mark Conrad, Jeff Barron, and Innerphase Video. Joining via teleconference were Joshua Horacek, Amy Brown-Thompson, Tom Lininger, Jon Kochis, Tiffany Nash, and Larry Hanna.

- Welcome
- COVID-19 Update

Jon Kochis, EMA Director updated the group by phone.

Ms. Nash reported there are 59 cases, 10 hospitalized, 4 in the ICU, and zero deaths.

Mr. Davis heard there are 7 cases admitted at FMC.

Mr. Hanna and Ms. Nash thanked the Commissioners for all their work.

Mr. Levacy asked about the publication of zip codes.

Ms. Nash reported the state was hoping to start that today.

The Commissioners provided video messages to the employees and community. The messages were on the county website, and they were shared by email.

We sent a thank you note to Crissy Devine, who is a contractor who updates our webpages quickly. We similarly thanked Bob Competti with Innerphase Video for his support.

We also sent thank you notes to Aerosport, Atwood Rope, and Zebco Industries for their part in answering the call to support the medical industry as manufacturers.

Also, the OSU Extension Office offered to help townships and villages set up digital meetings. We have shared our information from the CCAO bulletin.

In the review packet, there were several fact sheets from the Ohio Department of Health, including guidance on dispute resolutions for essential and non-essential businesses; guidance on Ohio travel; and a checklist for face cloth coverings.

We highlighted the website link for county information and for the Board of Elections. People can request an absentee ballot with a form found online.

• Legal Update

Mr. Horacek reported the Ohio Department of Health has extended the Stay at Home order until May 1st.

Administration and Budget Update/Carri's List

a. Announcements & Date Reminders

April 8 – Wear Blue for Child Abuse Prevention Awareness

April 10 – Good Friday – Stopping Business at Noon

May 5 – Wear Orange for Supervised Visitation Awareness

May 25 – Memorial Day Holiday – Offices are Closed for Business

The review packet included special dates of the year, as well as a list of prospective proclamations. In April and May, there are no large meetings.

b. Highlights of Resolutions

Dr. Brown highlighted 36 resolutions planned for the voting meeting.

JFS had 23 resolutions for protective placement in network.

The County Engineer proposed a resolution to lift the weight limit reductions on roads with weight limits so posted, effective April 7, 2020.

The County Engineer also proposed a resolution to remove a bridge load rating on the BER-26 Bridge.

In addition, the County Engineer recommended:

- A contract with 2LMN, Inc. to provide engineering services for the BER-26 Bridge Replacement Project;
- A contract with BUD's, Inc. for the BLO-35, FAI-CR23-2.461 Winchester Road over a Tributary to Walnut Creek Culvert Replacement project; and
- Approval of a Notice to Commence for the BLO-35 Culvert Replacement.

EMA proposed approval of a bill of sale for DAS, connected with the Multi-Agency Radio Communication Tower located in Walnut Township.

There were financial and grant related resolutions to approve, such as:

- Planned allocations for MSY, MCJDC, and JFS (three resolutions);
- An account to account transfer of appropriations for supplies (within Facilities and potentially reimbursable);
- An advance and budget adjustment for the Target of Opportunity Program; and
- County Engineer memo transactions, appropriations, and fund to fund transfers for projects (two resolutions).

There were additional financial and contracting resolutions in queue.

Also, in April, we will have a resolution to honor employees who serve as volunteers in the community.

Mr. Kochis added that the MARCs resolution is the final step before it goes to the state controlling board.

c. Administrative Approvals, Program, & Budget Update

Administrative & Program Updates

Administrative Approvals

The review packet contained a list of administrative approvals. There were no questions posed.

We held administrative meetings to review the bond market and the energy conservation project. The bond market is, of course, in turmoil and unpredictable. As such, we are going to evaluate our options in June. During the next several weeks, we will shore up the estimates for the energy conservation project.

Budget Update

Dr. Brown led a discussion about the budget. From a macro-perspective, the bad news is that we are experiencing unprecedented increases in unemployment. There are multiple reports of furloughs and cuts in pay, too.

There are global market impacts, and there is much uncertainty. Sales tax, casino revenue, interest income, and other revenue sources will certainly be impacted.

The good news is that the stimulus package checks are in progress, and unemployment checks are coming, too. The CARES Act support will be important for residents and businesses.

And Fairfield County is strong with collaboration. We will do everything we can to keep critical services going with our existing staff.

For the county, as discussed in the past two meetings, initial parameters for 20221 are flat parameters, with the exception of insurance, for which a 2% increase is anticipated. This will be for "level one" of the process to prepare a Tax Budget. We will continue to communicate with departments.

Flat parameters for salaries will be calculated on the existing salaries right now extrapolated for a twelve-month period, with no new hires and a hiring freeze, with the exception of emergency response positions.

Allocations have been adjusted, as well, for 2021.

For the first quarter of 2020, as compared to the previous year first quarter, our general fund revenues in the aggregate are up 13%. Sales tax is up 6%, and property taxes are up 18%. Expenditures are relatively flat, up .13%.

The healthy carry-over from the end of 2019 is a good thing, as well.

Mr. Davis stated that if any entity within the budget intends to compete with or challenge the flat parameters he would like to me made aware of that and that they will be called to multiple budget hearings and challenged publicly for their unwillingness to follow parameters and go against the Commissioners parameters.

Mr. Levacy has talked to numerous people who have not received anything from the Census Bureau. They reached out to the US Census contact who blamed it on how post office boxes were used. The Post Office said that is not the case.

Dr. Brown highlighted the Census website (Census2020.gov) and the phone number for the Census customer service: 1-800-923-8282. At the website, you can proceed with completing the census information. You can do this by phone, as well. You will be asked your address if you do not have your questionnaire.

Mr. Davis commended Valeda Sloan for her work in increase the responses in Amanda.

d. BRAVOs

Thank you so much to elected officials and department heads for collaborating and thoughtfully being there for one another to help maintain critical services.

Everyone has been very helpful and creative in solving operational problems.

Thank you to elected officials for restricting expenditures as much as possible during this time.

Dr. Brown thanked Luann Davidson for sewing a mask for her.

Mr. Davis thanked InnerPhase Video for the Commission videos.

Dr. Brown thanked the Department Heads for their hard work during this time.

Old Business

a. Fairfield Medical Center

The review packet contained the article of interest in the Lancaster Eagle Gazette about Fairfield Medical Center and their preparedness.

Mr. Davis has been in recent communication with Mr. Janoso. They remain at the ready for a surge. As of last night, they had seven hospitalizations. Mr. Janoso remains engaged with state and federal leaders regarding the viability of the hospital in months to come as revenues have dropped substantially and they await COVID-19 patients.

Dr. Brown reminded everyone that donations can be made to the Fairfield Medical Center Foundation. A few people have called about this. The phone number is 740 687 8107. The email address is fmcfoundation2@fmchealth.org

Mr. Levacy proposed the question of rural hospital issues to CCAO to keep it on the front burner. He will continue to raise the issue with federal and state leaders as well.

Mr. Fix reported on the CCAO Board Meeting from last week. He proposed CCAO help find a solution. He has been working with Ms. Subler, the CCAO executive director, on this. State Rep Jeff LaRe has been appointed to the Ohio House Economic Task Force. Mr. Janoso will be making a presentation to that task force in the coming days.

b. Attorney Fees and the Ohio Public Defender Commission

We are aware that after a meeting on March 19, the Ohio Public Defender Commission has decided at this time to not take any further action regarding raising assigned counsel rates and maximum fees.

Mr. Davis stated he had a robust conversation with Mr. Elsea. He made him aware of the new guidance from the Ohio Public Defender and advised him the hope of getting a new fee structure in place by July 1st is at risk. He expressed concern with the state budget and the County's budgetary pressure.

Mr. Davis reported that Mr. Elsea was very understanding. He's been paying attention and knows the issue at both the state and local levels.

Mr. Davis stated he will continue to communicate with Mr. Elsea and Mr. Price. His sense is this is something that will need to be delayed for some time as the see the effects of the pandemic at the state and local levels.

Mr. Fix expressed appreciation for the cooperative attitude of the bar association.

Dr. Brown added that the OPD Commission recognized that 36 counties, of which Fairfield County was one, had already raised rates for assigned counsel. The OPD Commission appreciated those counties' commitment to ensuring that the right to counsel for indigent Ohioans is protected and properly funded.

• Open Items

Mr. Davis asked Dr. Brown to touch base with Chief Lape for the variable cost of housing a single inmate given the reduction in population. He surmised they could be some line items that would experience reduced costs with the reduced population of inmates.

Mr. Levacy stated that he spoke with Chief Lape and he knows hand washing is a priority, but the jail could use more hand sanitizers and wipes. He asked Mr. Kochis to reach out to Chief Lape. Mr. Kochis stated that he was already able to place a significant order which should be in about two weeks.

Mr. Davis stated that in the short run he thought if the Sheriff had an immediate need, they could put it that need on social media and it would be addressed quickly by the public.

Dr. Brown stated that the order placed by Mr. Kochis, and any COVID-19 related purchase, is being tracked for potential reimbursement at a 75% rate as part of the request for public assistance through the Stafford Act for emergency management.

Fairfield County Board of Commissioners

A Proclamation Recognizing National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 19–25, 2020

Whereas, in 1982, the President's Task Force on Victims of Crime envisioned a national commitment to a more equitable and supportive response to victims;

Whereas, this commemorative week celebrates the energy, perseverance and commitment that launched the victims' rights movement, inspired its progress, and continues to advance the cause of justice for crime victims;

Whereas, crime can leave a lasting impact on any person, regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status;

Whereas, incorporating communities' existing experts and trusted sources of support into efforts to fully serve survivors will develop a criminal justice system response that is truly accessible and appropriate for all victims of crime;

Whereas, with the unwavering support of their communities and victim service providers behind them, survivors will be empowered to face their grief, loss, fear, anger, and hope without fear of judgment, and will feel understood, heard, and respected;

Whereas, serving victims and rebuilding their trust restores hope to victims and survivors, as well as supports thriving communities;

Whereas, engaging a broader array of healthcare providers, community leaders, faith organizations, educators and businesses can provide new links between victims and services that improve their safety, healing, and access to justice;

Whereas, honoring the rights of victims, including the rights to be heard and to be treated with fairness, dignity, and respect, and working to meet their needs rebuilds their trust in the criminal justice and social service systems;

Whereas, National Crime Victims' Rights Week provides an opportunity to recommit to ensure that all victims of crime – especially those who are challenging to reach or serve – are offered culturally and linguistically accessible and appropriate services in the aftermath of crime; and

Whereas, The Fairfield County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Victim Assistance Division, is hereby dedicated to strengthening victims and survivors in the aftermath of crime, building resilience in our communities and our victim responders, and working for a better future for all victims and survivors

A Proclamation Recognizing National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 19-25, 2020

National Crimes Victims' Rights Week

And reaffirm this County's commitment to creating a victim service and criminal justice response that assists all victims of crime during Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year; and to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for those community members, victim service providers, and criminal justice professionals who are committed to improving our response to all victims of crime so that they may find relevant assistance, support, justice, and peace.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our names and caused the seal of the County of Fairfield to be affixed to this Proclamation on the 14nd Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty.

A resolution approving and acknowledging electronic signature procedures

WHEREAS, electronic signatures of the Commissioners, County Administrator, and Clerk to the Board of Commissioners are permissible and have been in use since 2013, whenever possible and appropriate;

WHEREAS, written procedures and passwords are in place for the use of the County Commissioners Resolution Management System and for specific circumstances;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, COUNTY OF FAIRFIELD, STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That the Board approves the attached written procedures.

Fairfield County Security Procedure for Electronic Signatures

For county commissioners signature on resolutions, after approval in public meeting, is that the clerk or assistant clerk has a uniquely assigned password known to them and not shared with others, and that password is required for use of the electronic signatures within the county commissioners' resolution management system.

For signatures on contracts, if an electronic signature is needed, prior to the Clerk using such a signature, the approval must have been provided by a vote in public meeting for the Commissioners, by approval of a resolution or a motion.

For the County Administrator's signature, the approval could be made solely within the county resolution management system.

Contracts are uploaded within CRMS once all signatures are reflected, and those contracts are available for review by auditors, staff, and others to ensure accuracy.

Electronic signatures as individual signatures for non-voted items can be used with verbal approval.

1306.04 Applicability - agreements.

- (A) Sections $\underline{1306.01}$ to $\underline{1306.23}$ of the Revised Code do not require a record or signature to be created, generated, sent, communicated, received, stored, or otherwise processed or used by electronic means or in electronic form.
- (B) Sections 1306.01 to 1306.23 of the Revised Code apply only to transactions between parties each of which has agreed to conduct transactions by electronic means. Whether the parties agree to conduct a transaction by electronic means is determined from the context and surrounding circumstances, including the parties' conduct.
- (C) A party that agrees to conduct a transaction by electronic means may refuse to conduct other transactions by electronic means. The right granted by this division may not be waived by agreement.

(D) Except as otherwise provided in sections $\underline{1306.01}$ to $\underline{1306.23}$ of the Revised Code, any of the provisions of such sections may be varied by agreement. The presence in certain provisions of sections $\underline{1306.01}$ to $\underline{1306.23}$ of the Revised Code of the words "unless otherwise agreed," or words of similar import, does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement.

(E) Whether an electronic record or electronic signature has legal consequences is determined by sections 1306.01 to 1306.23 of the Revised Code and other applicable law.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.05 Citation, construction and application of chapter.

Sections 1306.01 to 1306.15 of the Revised Code may be known and cited as the "uniform electronic transactions act" and shall be construed and applied as follows:

- (A) To facilitate electronic transactions consistent with other applicable law;
- (B) To be consistent with reasonable practices concerning electronic transactions and with the continued expansion of those practices;
- (C) To effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of sections $\underline{1306.01}$ to $\underline{1306.15}$ of the Revised Code among states enacting the uniform electronic transactions act.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.06 Electronic record or signature satisfies legal requirements.

- (A) A record or signature may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form.
- (B) A contract may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because an electronic record was used in its formation.
- (C) If a law requires a record to be in writing, an electronic record satisfies the law.
- (D) If a law requires a signature, an electronic signature satisfies the law.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.07 Electronic record capable of retention by recipient at time of receipt.

- (A) If the parties have agreed to conduct a transaction by electronic means and a law requires a person to provide, send, or deliver information in writing to another person, the requirement is satisfied if the information is provided, sent, or delivered, as the case may be, in an electronic record capable of retention by the recipient at the time of receipt. An electronic record is not capable of retention by the recipient if the sender or its information processing system inhibits the ability of the recipient to print or store the electronic record.
- (B) If a law other than sections $\underline{1306.01}$ to $\underline{1306.23}$ of the Revised Code requires a record to be posted or displayed in a certain manner, to be sent, communicated, or transmitted by a specified method, or to contain information that is formatted in a certain manner, all of the following apply:

Lawriter - ORC Page 4 of 14

- (1) The record shall be posted or displayed in the manner specified in the other law.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in division (D)(2) of this section, the record shall be sent, communicated, or transmitted by the method specified in the other law.
- (3) The record shall contain the information formatted in the manner specified in the other law.
- (C) If a sender inhibits the ability of a recipient to store or print an electronic record, the electronic record is not enforceable against the recipient.
- (D) Divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section may not be varied by agreement, except as follows:
- (1) To the extent a law, other than sections 1306.01 to 1306.23 of the Revised Code, requires information to be provided, sent, or delivered in writing but permits that requirement to be varied by agreement, the requirement under division (A) of this section that the information be in the form of an electronic record capable of retention also may be varied by agreement;
- (2) A requirement under a law, other than sections 1306.01 to 1306.23 of the Revised Code, to send, communicate, or transmit a record by regular mail may be varied by agreement to the extent permitted by the other law.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.08 When electronic record or signature is attributable to person - effect.

- (A) An electronic record or electronic signature is attributable to a person if it was the act of the person. The act of the person may be shown in any manner, including a showing of the efficacy of any security procedure applied to determine the person to which the electronic record or electronic signature is attributable.
- (B) The effect of an electronic record or electronic signature attributed to a person under division (A) of this section shall be determined from the context and surrounding circumstances at the time of its creation, execution, or adoption, including the parties' agreement, if any, and otherwise as provided by law.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.09 Effect of change or error in transmission.

- (A) If a change or error in an electronic record occurs in a transmission between parties to a transaction, both of the following apply:
- (1) If the parties have agreed to use a security procedure to detect changes or errors and one party has conformed to the procedure, but the other party has not, and the nonconforming party would have detected the change or error had that party also conformed, the conforming party may avoid the effect of the changed or erroneous electronic record.
- (2) In an automated transaction involving an individual, the individual may avoid the effect of an electronic record that resulted from an error made by the individual in dealing with the electronic agent of another person, if the electronic agent did not provide an opportunity for the prevention or correction of the error and, at the time the individual learns of the error, the individual does all of the following:

(a) The individual promptly notifies the other person of the error and that the individual did not intend to be bound by the electronic record received by the other person.

- (b) The individual takes reasonable steps, including steps that conform to the other person's reasonable instructions, to return to the other person or, if instructed by the other person, to destroy the consideration received, if any, as a result of the erroneous electronic record.
- (c) The individual has not used or received any benefit or value from the consideration, if any, received from the other person.
- (B) If divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply, the change or error has the effect provided by other law, including the law of mistake, and the parties' contract, if any.
- (C) Divisions (A)(2) and (B) of this section may not be varied by agreement.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.10 Notary, acknowledgment, verification or oath requirement.

If a law requires a signature or record to be notarized, acknowledged, verified, or made under oath, the requirement is satisfied if the electronic signature of the person authorized to perform those acts, together with all other information required to be included by other applicable law, is attached to or logically associated with the signature or record.

Effective Date: 09-14-2000

1306.11 Requirement that record be retained - original records.

- (A) If a law requires that a record be retained, the requirement is satisfied by retaining an electronic record of the information in the record if both of the following are satisfied:
- (1) The electronic record accurately and completely reflects the information set forth in the record after it was first generated in its final form as an electronic record or otherwise.
- (2) The electronic record remains accessible for later reference.
- (B) A requirement to retain a record in accordance with division (A) of this section does not apply to any information the sole purpose of which is to enable the record to be sent, communicated, or received.
- (C) A person satisfies division (A) of this section by using the services of another person if the requirements of that division are satisfied.
- (D) If a law requires a record to be presented or retained in its original form, or provides consequences if the record is not presented or retained in its original form, that law is satisfied by an electronic record retained in accordance with division (A) of this section.
- (E) If a law requires retention of a check, that requirement is satisfied by retention of an electronic record of the information on the front and back of the check in accordance with division (A) of this section.
- (F) A record retained as an electronic record in accordance with division (A) of this section satisfies a law requiring a person to retain a record for evidentiary, audit, or similar purposes, unless a law enacted after the effective date of this section specifically prohibits the use of an electronic record for the specified purpose.

(G) This section does not preclude a governmental agency of this state from specifying additional requirements for the retention of a record subject to the agency's jurisdiction.

1306.13 Automated transaction - contracts - terms.

In an automated transaction, all of the following apply:

- (A) A contract may be formed by the interaction of electronic agents of the parties, even if no individual was aware of or reviewed the electronic agents' actions or the resulting terms and agreements.
- (B) A contract may be formed by the interaction of an electronic agent and an individual, acting on the individual's own behalf or for another person, including by an interaction in which the individual performs actions that the individual is free to refuse to perform and that the individual knows or has reason to know will cause the electronic agent to complete the transaction or performance.
- (C) The terms of the contract described in this section are determined by the substantive law applicable to the contract.

1306.14 Sending and receiving conditions.

- (A) Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic record is sent when it satisfies all of the following:
- (1) The record is addressed properly or otherwise directed properly to an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purpose of receiving electronic records or information of the type sent, and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic record.
- (2) The record is in a form capable of being processed by the information processing system described in division (A)(1) of this section.
- (3) The record enters an information processing system outside the control of the sender or of a person that sent the electronic record on behalf of the sender, or enters a region of the information processing system designated or used by the recipient that is under the control of the recipient.
- (B) Unless otherwise agreed between a sender and the recipient, an electronic record is received when both of the following are satisfied:

Lawriter - ORC Page 7 of 14

(1) The record enters an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purpose of receiving electronic records or information of the type sent, and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic record.

- (2) The record is in a form capable of being processed by the information processing system described in division (B)(1) of this section.
- (C) Division (B) of this section applies even if the place the information processing system is located is different from the place the electronic record is deemed to be received under division (D) of this section.

- (1) Unless otherwise expressly provided in the electronic record or agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic record is deemed to be sent from the sender's place of business and to be received at the recipient's place of business.
- (2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, both of the following apply:
- (a) If the sender or recipient has more than one place of business, the place of business of that person is the place having the closest relationship to the underlying transaction.
- (b) If the sender or the recipient does not have a place of business, the place of business is the sender's or recipient's residence, as the case may be.
- (E) An electronic record is received under division (B) of this section even if no individual is aware of its receipt.
- (F) Receipt of an electronic acknowledgment from an information processing system described in division (B) of this section establishes that a record was received, but, by itself, does not establish that the content sent corresponds to the content received.

(G)

- (1) If a person is aware that an electronic record purportedly sent under division (A) of this section, or purportedly received under division (B) of this section, was not actually sent or received, the legal effect of the sending or receipt is determined by other applicable law.
- (2) Except to the extent permitted by other law, division (G)(1) of this section may not be varied by agreement.

1306.15 Control of transferable record.

- (A) As used in this section, "transferable record" means an electronic record that satisfies both of the following:
- (1) The transferable record would be a note under Chapter 1303. or a document under Chapter 1307. of the Revised Code, if the electronic record were in writing.
- (2) The issuer of the electronic record expressly has agreed that it is a transferable record.

Lawriter - ORC Page 8 of 14

(B) A person has control of a transferable record if a system employed for evidencing the transfer of interests in the transferable record reliably establishes that person as the person to which the transferable record was issued or transferred.

- (C) A system satisfies division (B) of this section, and a person is deemed to have control of a transferable record, if the transferable record is created, stored, and assigned in such a manner that satisfies all of the following:
- (1) A single authoritative copy of the transferable record exists that is unique, identifiable, and, except as provided in divisions (C)(4) to (6) of this section, unalterable.
- (2) The authoritative copy identifies the person asserting control as either of the following:
- (a) The person to which the transferable record was issued;
- (b) If the authoritative copy indicates that the transferable record has been transferred, the person to which the transferable record most recently was transferred.
- (3) The authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the person asserting control or its designated custodian.
- (4) Copies or revisions that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy may be made only with the consent of the person asserting control.
- (5) Each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy.
- (6) Any revision of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as authorized or unauthorized.

- (1) Except as otherwise agreed, a person having control of a transferable record is the holder, as defined in section 1301.201 of the Revised Code, of the transferable record and has the same rights and defenses as a holder of an equivalent record or writing under the uniform commercial code. If the applicable statutory requirements under section 1303.32, 1307.501, or 1309.27 of the Revised Code are satisfied, these rights and defenses include the rights and defenses of a holder in due course, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated, or a purchaser, respectively.
- (2) Delivery, possession, and indorsement are not required to obtain or exercise any of the rights under division (D)(1) of this section.
- (E) Except as otherwise agreed, an obligor under a transferable record has the same rights and defenses as an equivalent obligor under equivalent records or writings under the uniform commercial code.

(F)

(1) If requested by a person against which enforcement is sought, the person seeking to enforce the transferable record shall provide reasonable proof that the person is in control of the transferable record.

Lawriter - ORC Page 9 of 14

(2) Proof required by division (F)(1) of this section may include access to the authoritative copy of the transferable record and related business records sufficient to review the terms of the transferable record and to establish the identity of the person having control of the transferable record.

electronic record, both of the following apply:

(1) The effect of compliance with a security procedure established by a law or regulation is determined

(2) In all other cases than those described in division (A)(1) of this section, if the parties agree to use or otherwise knowingly adopt a security procedure to verify the person from which an electronic signature or electronic record has been sent, the electronic signature or electronic record is attributable to the person identified by the security procedure, if the person relying on the attribution

(a) The security procedure is commercially reasonable.

(b) The party accepted or relied on the electronic message in good faith and in compliance with the security procedure and any additional agreement with or separate instructions of the other party.

(1) The person was not entrusted at any time with the right or duty to act for the party with respect to such electronic signature or electronic record or security procedure.

(2) The person lawfully obtained access to transmitting facilities of the party, if such access facilitated the misuse of the security procedure.

(3) The person obtained, from a source controlled by the party, information facilitating misuse of the security procedure.

(C) If the parties use a commercially reasonable security procedure to detect errors or changes with respect to an electronic signature or electronic record, both of the following apply:

(1) The effect of a security procedure is determined by the agreement between the parties, or, in the absence of an agreement, by this section or any law establishing the security procedure.

(2) Unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, if a security procedure indicates that an electronic signature or electronic record has not been altered since a particular time, it shall be treated as not having been altered since that time.

PURPOSE:

To authorize and provide procedures to verify that an electronic signature, record, or performance is that of a specific person or for detecting changes or errors in the information in an electronic record as required to facilitate secure authentication of electronic financial transactions and records.

SCOPE:

This policy applies to County Auditor data processing systems and processes that use electronic signature or other means to process financial transactions and other electronic records

DEFINITIONS:

"Electronic record" means a record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means. An electronic record is not capable of retention by the recipient to print or store the electronic record. Electronic Signature systems should provide the signatory and recipient with the ability to print a copy of the document.

"Electronic signature" (E-Sign) means an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with a record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record. Electronic signatures have the equivalent level of legal protection that is given to paper-based signatures. All security procedures and technologies should provide a reasonable level of authentication and integrity based on risk and purpose.

"Security procedure" means a procedure employed for the purpose of verifying that an electronic signature, record, or performance is that of a specific person or for detecting changes or errors in the information in an electronic record "Security procedure" includes a procedure that requires the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying word or numbers, encryption, or callback or other acknowledgment procedures.

"Digital Certificate" means an attachment to an electronic message used for security purposes. The most common use of a digital certificate is to verify that a user sending a message is who he or she claims to be and to provide the receiver with the means to encode a reply.

"Identification and Authentication" means the verification of the identity of a requesting entity (a person, computer, system or process). Once it is determined who may have access to a system, the identification and authentication (I&A) process helps to enforce access control to the system by verifying the identity of the entity. Systems may use a variety of techniques or combinations of techniques such as user-ID, password, personal identification number, and digital certificates, to enforce I&A depending upon the level of access control required to protect the system

"Integrity" means the assurance that information is not changed accidentally or through a malicious or otherwise improper act. Any changes occurring through the transmission or processing of an E-Sign record should either invalidate the signature or clearly show the change and create a security log identifying the user or system that produced the change and the time that it occurred. Comparative record audits and internal control procedures should also be considered to ensure the integrity of the information. These control procedures should be recorded in the system documentation along with any changes to the application, system environment, and operating procedures during the lifetime of the system.

"Risk Assessment" means a process concerned with identifying, analyzing and responding to Information Technology (IT) security risks. Risk assessment attempts to maximize the results of positive events and minimize the results of negative events.

"Interface Requirements" means that the Auditor must require a separate and distinct action on the part of the person for each signature action. The separate and distinct action must be clearly marked as indicating the user's intent to electronically sign a record. The separate and distinct action may include a series of keystrokes, a click of a mouse or other similar action.

"Nonrepudiation" procedures are designed to ensure that the signatory adopted or assented to the record or electronic transaction. An example would be add a statement as follows: "By pressing the "Submit" button you are certifying that you are the authorized user of this system and agree that you are submitting an Electronic Signature which is comparable to your written signature for the purposes of this document."

Per the Ohio Revised Code § 304.01:

- (B) "County Office" means any officer, department, board, commission, agency, court, or other instrumentality of a county.
- (E) "Electronic signature" means an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with a record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record.
- Note: The signature can be by a County employee or a citizen transacting with the County. Ohio Revised Code § 304.02:

Prior to a county office using electronic records and electronic signatures, a county office shall adopt, in writing, a security procedure to verify that an electronic signature, record, or performance is that of a specific person or for detecting changes or errors in the information in an electronic record. A security procedure includes, but is not limited to, a procedure requiring algorithms or other codes, identifying words or numbers, encryption, or callback or other acknowledgment procedures.

All E-Sign projects will be managed according to the Lucas County Auditor Management Policies and may require approval of the Lucas County Data Processing Board (LCDP Board).

The Security Procedures relating to E-Sign Systems developed or procured under authority of the LCDP Board will be managed by the Lucas County Auditor's LCIS representative and coordinated with agency staff and their Business Account Representative. All E-Sign Project Plans must contain a Security Assessment, which identifies and documents the level and type of technology used to provide security for the system. This assessment will become a permanent component of the Project File and associated System Documentation.

PROCEDURES:

As part of the Information Technology project planning process, the Auditor's LCIS Representative will complete an assessment of the risk for the use of the application by completing an "Electronic Transaction Security Assessment." The risk assessment identifies the appropriate security level by analyzing the impact of a security breach and the probability of an attempt to breach security. The agency risk assessment shall consider the nature of the information and the systems, the business purpose, the operating environment, the existing protections, the impact of a security breach, and the likelihood of a breach occurring. This process is initiated by each agency completing an "Electronic Transaction Security Assessment Request"

E-Sign systems shall receive a comprehensive Security Assessment to verify that an electronic signature created by the system is that of a specific person and for detecting changes or errors in the information in an electronic record. This Security Assessment must include, but is not limited to, a procedure requiring algorithms or other codes, identifying words or numbers, encryption, or callback or other acknowledgment procedures. The system documentation must include the specific security procedures and processes automatically employed by the system or conducted by security administrators, to ensure the identity of the signatory and the integrity of the electronic records stored within the system.

RISK ASSESSMENT BY EACH COUNTY AGENCY:

A representative of LCIS will assist Agencies in completing an assessment of the transaction risk for the use of the set of similar electronic transactions. The transaction risk assessment identifies the appropriate security level by analyzing the impact of a security breach and the probability of an attempt to breach security

In determining the potential impact of a security breach, county agencies shall consider the:

intended use of the electronic record or signature; (a)

(b) type of information being transmitted, received or stored;

(C) network used:

(d) degree of risk to the state:

degree of risk to the users of the system:

(f) degree of risk to third parties;

projected volume of transactions;

estimated cost;

potential legal liability; and appropriate requirements for authentication of identity.

Impact of a Security Breach. The potential impact of a security breach falls into one of four categories; low-impact, medium-impact, high-impact and very high-impact.

Low-impact: A security breach is considered low-impact if: (I) there is no impact of a breach of security or (ii) the impact is slight or so insignificant that there would be no or only a slight and negligible financial loss, loss of the public's trust or adverse legal consequences.

Medium-impact: A security breach is considered medium-impact if the impact is limited in nature Limited in nature means that: (I) the financial loss when averaged for the electronic transaction set is less than ten thousand dollars to the business, citizen, state or other entity involved, or (ii) there are no major adverse legal implications, or (iii) the breach would cause at least some but not significant public distrust of the county

High-impact: A security breach is considered high-impact if: (I) compromised security would have a significant impact so that the financial harm when averaged for the electronic transaction set ranges from ten thousand dollars to five hundred thousand dollars, or (ii) the breach would result in media scrutiny and significant public distrust, or (iii) the breach would have adverse legal consequences

Very High-impact: The result of a security breach that has a very high impact would be extremely serious. This type of breach results in: (I) financial loss when averaged for the electronic transaction set exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, or (ii) considerable legal violations, or (iii) intense media scrutiny and widespread, deep public distrust.

(4)Probability of an Attempt to Breach Security. The primary consideration is the value of a security breach to a person attempting a breach. Value includes financial gain, unauthorized access to confidential information, and the ability to harass, embarrass or shock. The probability is characterized as low, medium or high.

Low-probability: A low-probability electronic transaction is one that would have little value to someone attempting a breach, and therefore, the likelihood of breach attempts is small with any attempts likely to be none or few and limited in effort.

Medium-probability: A medium-probability electronic transaction is one which would provide value to someone seeking to breach security.

High-probability: A high-probability electronic transaction would provide great value to someone should he or she breach security.

SECURITY LEVELS:

In general, there are four levels of security that apply to internal E-Sign applications. Security Level "A" provides the minimum level of security for E-Sign systems. Security Level "D" provides the highest level of security:

Security Level A: Applications must use, at a minimum, a unique user-ID and an alphanumeric password consisting of at least eight characters, or other security procedures or features as approved by the Auditor. In cases where a user password is used for Electronic Signature authentication, a statement notifying the User should be provided at the point where the User logs into the system. An example would be: "This Password acts as an Electronic Signature and is comparable to the authorized user's written legal signature. Passwords must never be shared or revealed to anyone else. Revealing a password exposes the authorized user to responsibility for actions that another party takes with password."

Security Level B: The addition of a smartcard or other physical device with a unique proprietary password combined with the password requirements described in Level A.

Security Level C: Under Level C security, agencies must use either digital certificates for authentication or a combination of a unique user-ID, password (described above), and a physical device such as a smartcard. The transmission of user-IDs and passwords must be encrypted using secure sockets layer or equivalent encryption when transmitted over the Internet or wireless transmission. Digital certificates used for electronic signatures require a significant infrastructure known as public key infrastructure (PKI) Therefore, Auditor employees may use a PKI only with the approval of the Auditor Security Level D: Security Level D requires a unique user-ID and password, a digital certificate issued under PKI, and a physical device such as a smartcard or biometric.

The above Security Levels are provided as guidelines There may be cases where additional levels or types of security technology may be required. Each proposed E-Sign system and project will have its own set of variables which must be reviewed in the Security Analysis. These include the intended use of the signature; type of documents or information stored on the system; audit requirements; potential liability or cost of a security breech; network used, and degree of risk to the County or users of the system. Therefore, it's important that the business and functional requirements, and operating environment for each proposed E-Sign system are fully identified, analyzed, and documented before a Project Plan for development or purchase is approved.

VI. POLICY:

A. GENERAL RULE

- All security procedures and technologies should provide authentication, nonrepudiation, and integrity to the extent that is reasonable for each electronic transaction.
- 2. This IPP establishes an overarching security procedure that requires each office/bureau within ODJFS to:
 - a. Document uses of electronic transactions;
 - Conduct a transaction risk assessment of each set of similar electronic transactions;
 - c. Use, as a minimum, technology standards and/or security procedures that are appropriate for the level of transaction risk as determined by the security assessment; and
 - d. Establish/adopt and follow documented security policies and procedures.

B. DOCUMENTING USES OF ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS

- 1. For each set of similar electronic transactions, or any sought to be implemented, each office/bureau within ODJFS (or the Office of Information Systems) must complete an electronic transaction report before acquiring or implementing electronic signatures, transactions or related technology. Each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction must complete an electronic transaction report on the form provided by OIT at http://www.ohio.gov/itp. Each office/bureau within ODJFS must maintain electronic transaction reports for as long as the electronic records of the electronic transaction are retained in accordance with any and all applicable ODJFS records retention schedules.
- 2. Each electronic transaction report must include:

- a. The identification and description of the set of similar electronic transactions;
- b. The domain under which the electronic transaction set falls;
- A transaction risk assessment that identifies the potential impact of a security breach and the probability of attempts to breach security;
- d. A determination of the security level required for the electronic transaction set per the transaction risk assessment;
- e. The security procedure used for the electronic transaction set; and
- f. A list of documented agency security policies for physical, network and computer security. These documents must be clearly referenced and maintained on file and available for audit.
- 3. Each office/bureau within ODJFS (or OIS) must update electronic transaction reports to accurately reflect changes in the electronic transaction's associated risk, technology, or security procedures. If either the office/bureau or OIS determines that due to these changes in risk, technology or security procedures, the electronic transaction does not conform to the minimum technology standard for the level of security identified in the transaction risk assessment, the office/bureau, with the assistance of OIS, must modify the risk, technologies or procedures to bring the electronic transaction into compliance with this IPP.

C. ELECTRONIC TRANSACTION DOMAINS

Persons using electronic transactions in the course of official business fall in one of three domains - the citizen domain, the business domain, or the state internal domain.

- CITIZEN DOMAIN: The citizen domain consists of individuals acting on their own behalf or on the behalf of any other individual as his/her guardian, authorized representative, or attorney. The citizen domain includes only those individuals who choose to interact electronically with the state of Ohio. The citizen domain also includes state Web and application servers that interact with citizens.
- BUSINESS DOMAIN: The business domain consists of corporations, business trusts, partnerships, limited liability companies, associations, joint ventures, or any other commercial, charitable, or legal entity that interacts electronically with any office/bureau within ODJFS. This domain also includes Web and application servers that interact with businesses.
- 3. STATE INTERNAL DOMAIN: The state internal domain consists of state employees acting on behalf of the state; and any other agent of the state, network components, and web and application servers that use electronic transaction-enabled applications to conduct internal state business. The state internal domain also applies to local government representatives for electronic transactions with state government agencies.

D. TRANSACTION RISK ASSESSMENT

- 1. As part of the agency report, OIS, with the assistance of the appropriate office/bureau, must complete an assessment of the transaction risk for the use of the set of similar electronic transactions. The transaction risk assessment identifies the appropriate security level by analyzing the impact of a security breach and the probability of attempt to breach security.
- 2. In determining the potential impact of a security breach, the office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction, with the assistance of OIS, shall consider the:
 - a. Intended use of the electronic record or signature;
 - b. Type of information being transmitted, received or stored;
 - c. Network used;
 - d. Degree of risk to the state in general and ODJFS in particular;
 - e. Degree of risk to the users of the system;
 - f. Degree of risk to third parties;
 - g. Projected volume of transactions;
 - h. Estimated cost;
 - i. Potential legal liability, with the assistance of the Office of Legal Services; and
 - j. Appropriate requirements for authentication of identity.

IMPACT OF A SECURITY BREACH

The potential impact of a security breach falls into one of four categories - low-impact, medium-impact, high-impact and very high-impact.

- a) LOW-IMPACT: A security breach is considered low-impact if there is no impact of a breach of security or the impact is slight or so insignificant that there would be no or only a slight and negligible financial loss, loss of the public's trust or adverse legal consequences.
- b) MEDIUM-IMPACT: A security breach is considered mediumimpact if the impact is limited in nature. Limited in nature means that:
 - (1) the financial loss when averaged for the electronic transaction set is less than ten thousand dollars to the business, citizen, state or other entity involved,
 - (2) there are no major adverse legal implications, or
 - (3) The breach would cause at least some but not significant public distrust of the state.
- c) HIGH-IMPACT: A security breach is considered high-impact if:

- (1) compromised security would have a significant impact so that the financial harm when averaged for the electronic transaction set ranges from ten thousand dollars to five hundred thousand dollars.
- (2) the breach would result in media scrutiny and significant public distrust, or
- (3) The breach would have adverse legal consequences.
- d) VERY HIGH-IMPACT: The result of a security breach that has a very high impact would be extremely serious. This type of breach results in:
 - (1) the financial loss, when averaged for the electronic transaction set, exceeding five hundred thousand dollars,
 - (2) considerable legal violations, or
 - (3) Intense media scrutiny and widespread, deep public distrust.

4. PROBABILITY OF AN ATTEMPT TO BREACH SECURITY

The primary consideration is the value of a security breach to a person attempting a breach. Value includes financial gain, unauthorized access to confidential information and the ability to harass, embarrass, or shock. The probability is characterized as low, medium or high.

- a) LOW-PROBABILITY: A low-probability electronic transaction is one that would have little value to someone attempting a breach, and therefore, the likelihood of breach attempts is small with any attempts likely to be none or few and limited in effort
- b) MEDIUM-PROBABILITY: A medium-probability electronic transaction is one which would provide value to someone seeking to breach security.
- HIGH-PROBABILITY: A high-probability electronic transaction would provide great value to someone should he or she breach security.

5. TRANSACTION RISK ASSESSMENT

The transaction risk assessment results in a determination that the electronic transaction falls within one of four minimum security levels - low (level A), medium (level B), high (level C) or very high (level D). The minimum-security level is determined by the combination of the level of the impact of a security breach and the level of probability of a security breach as identified in the table in Appendix B.

E. SECURITY PROCEDURES APPROPRIATE FOR SECURITY LEVELS

1. Each electronic transaction set must conform to the minimum-security procedures including technology standards for the level of security identified in the transaction risk assessment. Each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction may choose to meet the requirements of higher security levels with level A being least secure and level D being the most secure.

- For any transaction used at levels B, C, or D or any level A transaction involving confidential data or a monetary transfer, the transmission of user-IDs and passwords must be encrypted using secure sockets layer or equivalent encryption when transmitted over the Internet.
 - a) LEVEL A: Under this level of security, the office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction may use any technological means for processing these sets of electronic transactions and providing assurance of authentication, nonrepudiation, and integrity. Each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction shall document level A electronic transaction sets per paragraph (D) (1) of this IPP.
 - b) LEVEL B: Level B electronic transactions must use at a minimum one of the following two security procedures for authentication: (a) a unique user-ID and an alphanumeric password consisting of at least eight characters, or (b) a smartcard or physical device with a unique proprietary password as an alternative. Each office/bureau within ODJFS documenting level B electronic transaction sets per paragraph (D)(1) of this IPP must describe in the electronic transaction report the authentication process including information of the initial registration process and the means used to prove the identity of persons registering to use electronic transactions.
 - c) LEVEL C: Under level C security, each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction must submit, after obtaining the advice and consent of OIS, the electronic transaction report to OIT and shall not use the electronic transaction until OIT approves the electronic transaction as being in compliance with this IPP. Each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction must use digital certificates subject to paragraph (G) (4) (a) of this IPP for these electronic transaction sets or the alternative in paragraph (G) (4) (b) of this IPP.
 - (1) Digital certificates used for electronic signatures require a significant infrastructure known as public key infrastructure (PKI). Therefore, each office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction may use a PKI only with the approval of OIS, which shall in turn seek and obtain any necessary approvals from OIT.
 - (a) OIS may utilize a PKI made available by OIT.
 - (b) If OIS chooses to implement a PKI, OIS shall submit the PKI to OIT for review and approval. Common components of a PKI include the registration process and authorities; certificate policies and certificate practices statements, certificate management including issuance, continued participation, certificate revocation and certificate suspension; and other policies and which may be found at http://www.ohio.gov/itp.

G. INTERFACE REQUIREMENTS

When at any time during an electronic transaction ODJFS requires a signature or is conducting a financial transaction, ODJFS must require a separate and distinct action on the part of the person conducting the transaction for financial transactions and each signature. The separate and distinct action must be clearly marked as indicating an intent to complete a financial transaction or electronically sign a writing. The separate and distinct action may include a series of keystrokes, a click of a mouse or other similar action.

H. RECORDS RETENTION REQUIREMENTS

Both OIS and the office/bureau seeking to implement an electronic transaction must follow records retention practices that ensure nonrepudiation, integrity and continued access to the electronic record.

I. ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS WITH AGENCIES OF OTHER STATES AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

This IPP applies to electronic transactions between ODJFS and federal agencies to the extent that it is consistent with federal law. ODJFS offices/bureaus seeking to use electronic signatures for transactions with the federal government or agencies of another state must coordinate with OIS.

VII. RIGHT TO IMPOSE ADDITIONAL SECURITY PROCEDURES

Article 1 and the other provisions in this IPP notwithstanding:

- A. ODJFS may impose additional restrictions and limitations, and require, implement and enforce higher standards and security measures, on the use of electronic signatures and transactions, as ODJFS deems necessary; and,
- B. ODJFS offices/bureaus must comply with any and all federal and state requirements and restrictions on the use of electronic transactions and signatures, including but not limited to requirements and restrictions imposed by DAS/OIT, and by laws and regulations connected to programs administered by ODJFS.

We will be presenting you with a written offer based on our determination of the fair market value of your property. You will have ten (10) days from the time you receive that offer to accept or reject the offer. We will be willing to discuss the offer with you during that time. You are not required to accept that offer. If you reject the offer or we are unable to come to an agreement, we may have to exercise our eminent domain authority to appropriate your property, which requires a court procedure. In a court proceeding, you may disagree with any of the following: whether the project is necessary (except in quick takes), whether the project is a public use (except in quick takes), whether your property is blighted (if applicable), and whether our offer reflects the fair market value of the property.

HERE IS A BRIEF SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND LEGALLY PROTECTED RIGHTS:

- 1. By law, the Fairfield County, Ohio County Commissioners and the Fairfield County, Ohio Engineer's Office are required to make a good faith effort to purchase your property.
- 2. You do not have to accept this offer and the Fairfield County, Ohio County Commissioners and the Fairfield County, Ohio Engineer's Office are not required to agree to your demands.

- 3. If you do not accept this offer, and we cannot come to an agreement on the acquisition of your property, the Fairfield County, Ohio County Commissioners and the Fairfield County, Ohio Engineer's Office have the right to file suit to acquire the property by eminent domain in the county in which the property is located.
- 4. You have the right to seek the advice of an attorney, real estate appraiser, or any other person of your choice in this matter.
- 5. (this paragraph does not apply to private agencies or to municipally owned public utilities) You have a right to appeal this decision and may object to this project's public purpose, necessity, designation of blight (if applicable), or valuation by writing, within ten (10) business days of receiving this notice, to The Fairfield County Commissioners, 210 East Main Street, Room 301, Lancaster, Ohio 43130 or Jeremiah D. Upp, Fairfield County Engineer, 3026 West Fair Avenue, Lancaster, Ohio 43130-8993 of the taking agency, as well as to the elected official(s) who appointed the taking agency if the taking agency is not elected.

(The elected official)(A majority of the elected officials) that appointed (unelected agency) has/have the discretion to veto this project, and if they do so, it will not proceed. (This applies only if the taking agency is a public agency composed of officials who were not elected.)

6. We are required by law to provide you with a written offer and the appraisal or summary appraisal on which we base that offer (public agencies and public utilities may delete this phrase for properties valued at less than $10,000 if they have adopted alternate procedures).

After a trial, a jury will decide the amount you are to be awarded for your property that is taken, for the damage that is caused by the taking, if applicable, and for other damages permitted by law, which could either exceed or be less than our offer. During the court proceeding, you have the right to testify as to the value of your property, and you and the agency are entitled to present evidence of the fair market value of the property.

You may employ, at your own expense, appraisers and attorneys to represent you at this time or at any time during the proceedings described in this notice.

If we go to court to determine the amount we pay for your property and the jury awards you an amount that is significantly in excess of a good faith offer, revised offer, or offer made after an exchange of appraisals, as provided by law, you may be entitled to recover attorney's fees, costs, and expenses, subject to certain statutory limits.

If we go to court to determine whether the project is necessary or for a public use, and the court decides that it is not necessary or not for a public use, the judge shall award you your full amount of attorney's fees, costs, and expenses.

You also have the right to request that the issue of the value of your property be submitted to nonbinding mediation. You must submit your written request for mediation within ten business days after you file an answer to the agency's petition for an appropriation proceeding. If a settlement is not reached at mediation, the matter will proceed to a jury valuation trial.

Conversation with Michael Hummel Related to Easement Purchase

On March 5, 2020, I met with Michael Hummel and his father to negotiate an easement purchase for the Allen and Basil-Western Road, County and Township joint project. After explaining the project and additional easement needs, Michael stated that he felt that if 2 acre lots to the north of his farmland were selling for $66,000, then his land should be worth that much. I explained that the value was based on the current acre value being accessed by the Auditor's Office according to last year's appraisal. His next question was whether this was an ODOT project, to which I informed him it was a joint Township, County project. The conversation then digressed to all the times he had been wronged by various government agencies.

The last straw that prompted him to not negotiated the easement we needed, happened when an ODOT project for Pickerington either damaged crops and/or built a detention basin in a field that he claimed was leased from the Nicodemus family along Refugee Road. He claimed there was at least $2,500 in damages and until someone paid this amount to him, he was not going to negotiate with us. He wanted me to try to coerce Pickerington or ODOT to pay him before he would discuss our project. I told him that he would need to take his issue up with them, and when questioned, he stated that he didn't have issues with either the township or the county. He stated that cooperation stops with this project. I asked him if he was serious about not negotiating further, that he was tying my hands and that I would have no option but to turn the matter over to the Prosecutor's Office. He told me to do what I needed, that he liked me, but his mind was made up. He asked his father who stated that he agreed with whatever his son decides.

Both individuals were very nice and our meeting pleasant, but Michael was obstinate on his decision.

It was decided that Jonathon Ferbrache or Nikki Drake would try to speak with Michael. Nikki told me that they both called him on speaker phone together and he related to them the same story knowing that his issue was with different entities. They even stated that the process would proceed to the court, but he was still standing his ground with this knowledge.

That these funds will not be released to the Owner or used for any purpose unless a release is signed by the County.

- 1.6 Give the County at least three days notice prior to beginning any construction work and will keep the County advised of the work schedule throughout the development of the Project.
- 1.7 Prior to conditional acceptance of the Project by the County, guarantee all labor, material and equipment incorporated in the improvements that will become public against defects and deficiencies, for at least five years, by providing either:

- 1.10 Cause the work described in the approved construction drawings, specifications and supporting data, as required herein, to be completed within a year of the approval of the construction plans unless approved otherwise by the County.
- 1.11 Remove or cause to be removed such dirt, debris, and foreign matter from all public rights-of-way, improvements and/or easements as were deposited, left or resulted from the construction of improvements or any nature within the development, within twenty-four (24) hours after being notified by the County that such work is required. Such removal shall be done to the satisfaction of the County Engineer.
- 1.12 Prior to acceptance or conditional acceptance of the Project by the County, provide the County the original signed construction drawings, with four sets of prints annotated to reflect the "as-constructed" conditions, and the original recorded plat.

II GENERAL TERMS:

- When there appears to be, or there is in fact, a conflict between this Agreement and the County Regulations the County Regulations shall govern.
- No conveyance shall be made of any lot or parcel smaller in frontage or area than indicated on the plat except for the purpose of increasing the area of another lot.

- 2.3 The Owner shall hold the County free and harmless from any and all claims for damage of every nature arising or growing out of the construction of improvements or resulting from improvements and shall defend, at her own cost and expense, any suit or action brought against the County resulting from its sole negligence.

 - a. Fairfield County Water, Drainage and Sewage Regulations.
 - b. Fairfield County Construction and Material Specifications.

and that the procedures described in these County Regulations will be followed during the development, acceptance and maintenance period for this project.

- Upon violation of, or failure to comply with, any of the terms of this Agreement by the Owner, the County may take any of the following actions:
 - a. Stop all work on the Project forthwith;
 - b. Continue any unfinished work or replace any unaccepted work to a point that any public improvements do not appear to create a health or safety hazard or create maintenance or repair expense to the County because of their state of completion by:
 - 1. Holding the bonding company responsible,
 - 2. Using the certified check or proceeds thereof.
 - 3. Using the funds in the escrow account, or
 - 4. Draw on the letters of credit.
 - Take necessary action to eliminate apparent or actual safety or health hazards of an emergency nature when notification of the Owner does not cause a timely and satisfactory response or an immediate response is required. The cost of using county labor material or equipment shall be a cost to the owner to be paid thirty (30) days after being billed. Failure to pay may result in the County taking actions provided in 2.5(a) or 2.5(b) herein.
- 2.6 This Agreement represents the entire and integrated agreement between the Owner and the County for the Project and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations or agreements, either written or oral.
