Fairfield County Commission to hold State of the County Address

Lancaster, Ohio – The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners will hold its annual State of the County Address on Tuesday, April 25th at the Crossroads Ministry Center. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. with the State of the County Address beginning at noon.

The theme of this year’s address is “Brilliant Ideas at Work.” The Commissioners, along with County Administrator, Carri Brown, will present on the county’s current projects and future goals. An update will be provided on the new Public Safety Facility and Jail which remains on time and on budget. The project is 75% complete with an anticipated occupancy date of June 15th.

Commissioner Steve Davis, Board President, stated, “Along with the Commissioners and others, I am looking forward to the State of the County Address. I am eager to share information about Fairfield County’s progress.”

The Lancaster-Fairfield County Chamber of Commerce will be hosting the event. Reservations can be made to the chamber at (740) 653-8251. Crossroads Ministry Center is located at 2095 West Fair Avenue in Lancaster.
