Fairfield County to Hold “Lunch-N-Learn” Session with the Major Crimes Unit

Lancaster, Ohio – The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners will celebrate Sunshine Week March 11th through March 17th. The purpose of Sunshine Week is to highlight open workings of government. During this week, there is a “Lunch-N-Learn” Session for anyone who would like to learn more about the Major Crimes Unit. This educational opportunity is open to any interested stakeholder and any member of the public. The session will be held on March 13th at 11:30 a.m. in the Commissioners’ Hearing Room, 210 East Main Street in Lancaster.

During the “Lunch-N-Learn” session, officials from the Major Crimes Unit will discuss the mission of the law enforcement task force which serves the citizens of Fairfield, Athens, and Hocking counties. Among other efforts, the newest collaboration, the Fairfield Overdose Response Team, will be featured.

There is no need to RSVP.

Please just come and bring your own lunch. Coffee and water will be available.
