
Fairfield County EMA Offers Emergency Weather Spotter Training
Lancaster, Ohio, February 28, 2018. The Fairfield County Emergency Management Agency wants to help the community prepare for their safety during severe weather storms. One way the community can be prepared is by learning to read the signs in the sky. The Fairfield County EMA is offering residents the free training from the National Weather Service (NWS). This training teaches you how to spot dangerous weather patterns during a storm. With this training the NWS hopes that citizens can help them identify and relay important storm related information to the County Emergency Management Agency (EMA), local public safety officials, and the National Weather Service. This training is being hosted by Fairfield, Hocking and Pickaway County Emergency Management Agencies.

Course Topics:
- How to safely observe storms
- How to identify important features of storms
- Visual clues that may precede tornado development
- How to make accurate and timely reports

When: Wednesday, March 21, 2018 6:00pm – 8:30pm
Where: Liberty Center, 951 Liberty Center Drive, Lancaster Ohio
Cost: FREE
Registration: online at www.fairfieldema.com/training
Call the Fairfield County EMA 740-654-4357
Hocking County EMA 740-385-6168
Pickaway County EMA 740-477-1165

Media Contact Information:
Jon Kochis
Director, Fairfield County EMA
740-654-4357

###