Fairfield County Highlights History of the Administrative Courthouse with a Video

Lancaster, Ohio – The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners will celebrate Sunshine Week March 11th through March 17th. The purpose of Sunshine Week is to highlight open workings of government. In preparation for Sunshine Week, Fairfield County is highlighting an educational video prepared to show the history of the Administrative Courthouse, 210 East Main Street, Lancaster.

The video has been used in educational settings and has been enjoyed by groups who have toured the Administrative Courthouse. “We have a beautiful, historic administrative courthouse in Fairfield County, and its history is fascinating. We are very pleased to be able to document the history with a video”, stated Board President, Commissioner Davis.
