FAIRFIELD COUNTY PROMOTES TWO EMPLOYEES

Lancaster, Ohio - The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners announces two key promotions.

Effective April 10, 2021, Aunie Cordle, JFS Director, will be promoted to Deputy County Administrator. The deputy position is a newly created position with the fundamental responsibility of implementing the American Rescue Plan Act for Fairfield County.

“Mrs. Aunie Cordle has a wealth of leadership experience in county government, having served as the JFS Director and HR Director for Fairfield County. Ms. Cordle has a Bachelor of Science in Communications and a Master of Business Administration from Ohio University. She is a Senior Professional in Human Resources and a Society of Human Resource Management Senior Certified Professional. She has more than 30 years of experience in local government, and we are very excited for her to begin her new duties,” stated Dr. Carri Brown, County Administrator.

Also, effective April 10, 2021, Corey Clark, Deputy Director of JFS, Child Support and Workforce Development, will be promoted to JFS Director. The JFS Director position is responsible for the management of Public Assistance, Workforce Development, Child Support, and Protective Services.

“Mr. Clark holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology/Criminology and is an Ohio/American Certified Public Manager. He has more than 20 years of leadership experience in county government, with all of that experience with Fairfield County JFS. He is well-equipped to begin his new leadership role,” stated Brown.

Commissioner Dave Levacy, Board President, added, “Fairfield County is fortunate to have exceptional leaders, such as Mrs. Cordle and Mr. Clark, and it is great to see internal promotions. Internal promotions save time and money while encouraging employees as part of retention and recruitment strategies.”
