Lisa Wells appointed Executive Director of the Family, Adult and Children First Council

Clerk
Rachel A. Elsea

Lancaster, Ohio- The Fairfield County Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce the appointment of Lisa Wells as Executive Director of the Fairfield County Family, Adult and Children First Council (FACFC), effective August 24, 2016. The Council is a partnership of public and private non-profit, for-profit, and family serving agencies and organizations committed to improving the well-being of children and families in Fairfield County.

Mrs. Wells holds a bachelor's degree in Human Services Management. Throughout her professional career, Mrs. Wells has been deeply involved in the central Ohio community. She has served as Vice President of the Newark & Licking County Chamber of Commerce and has been employed by the Fairfield County Department of Job and Family Services and Lancaster City Schools. She also has extensive volunteer and community involvement with the Child Advocacy Center of Fairfield County and Fairfield Medical Center Twig 14.

"I'm honored to serve in this position," said Wells. "I look forward to working with a broad coalition of community partners for the betterment of the children and families of Fairfield County." Ms. Wells is married to husband Steve and has three children, son Nate and stepsons Adam and Kyle.
