

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, October 25, 2022

Fairfield County Accounting Staff Recognized for National Accounting Day

Lancaster, Ohio – Over 50 Fairfield County financial and accounting staff were recognized for National Accounting Day during this morning’s Commission meeting. National Accounting Day takes place on November 10, 2022.

Representatives from Fairfield County’s elected officials and departmental offices were present as they were recognized for their work on the all-funds budget of the county, as well as for their work in financial reporting, payroll, and grants management. The all-funds budget for 2022 exceeds $220 M and encompasses a wide range of critical services for courts, law enforcement, social services, public facilities, and roads and bridges.

The Auditor’s Office is especially appreciative of its financial department consisting of David Miller, Chris Wagner, Bev Anders, Meagen Bowland, Jennifer Dickerson, Lori Hampshire, Jennifer Harmon, Angel Horn, Christina Wetzell, Michelle Wright, and Tonya Wright.

Dr. Carri Brown, Fairfield County Auditor, stated, “By celebrating National Accounting Day, we are acknowledging the contributions our vast and dynamic community of financial professionals make on a daily basis for the people of the county and our stakeholders and partners, which include non-profit organizations, businesses, and other governments.”

“This year, the county is improving its financial systems technology which will increase efficiency and protection of records,” Brown added.

To access financial reports of the county, including the popular report (a shorter version of the annual comprehensive financial report), please go to: <https://bit.ly/FFCoFinancialReports>.

Budget information is found at the county website at: <https://bit.ly/FFCoFAQ>.

Questions can be posted anytime at: <https://bit.ly/AuditorContact>. You can also call the office anytime.

For more information or questions regarding the scope of accounting services in Fairfield County offices, please contact Chris Wagner, Financial Services/ACFR Manager, at (740) 652-7042.

###