Fairfield County Auditor Launches New Real Estate Property Search Website

Lancaster, Ohio — Fairfield County has launched a new online Real Estate Property Search website designed to make the process of searching for property parcel information faster, easier, and more transparent for residents, property owners, businesses, and real estate professionals.

The new website can be accessed at: <https://auditorrealestate.fairfieldcountyohio.gov/>

The updated platform features a modern design, improved navigation, and enhanced mapping capabilities that simplify the search process and provide users with easier access to property information. Overall, the new website offers a more intuitive, user-friendly experience while increasing transparency and accessibility for the public.

"We are excited to introduce this new property search tool to our residents and stakeholders," said Dr. Carri Brown, County Auditor. "Our goal is to make property information more accessible and easier to navigate. The updated website provides a more efficient and user-friendly experience while enhancing transparency and public access to important real estate assessment data."

If you have any questions about the new Real Estate Property Search website, please contact the Real Estate Assessment Office at (740) 652-7030.

All other inquiries can be directed to Rachel Elsea, Public Relations and Human Resources Officer, at rachel.elsea@fairfieldcountyohio.gov.
