GREGG MARX
PROSECUTOR

KENNETH N. MILLER OF PLEASANTVILLE INDICTED FOR AGGRAVATED MURDER

Prosecuting Attorney Gregg Marx has announced that Kenneth N. Miller was arrested on September 28, 2014 and arraigned on charges in Fairfield County Municipal Court this week stemming from the murder of Kelly Thompson.

On October 3, 2014, the Fairfield County Grand Jury indicted Kenneth N. Miller for the following offenses:
Two Counts of Aggravated Murder; Two Counts of Murder; One Count of Kidnapping, F1; Two Counts of Aggravated Robbery, F1; Two Counts of Robbery, F2; Two Counts of Tampering with Evidence, F3; One Count of Grand Theft of a Motor Vehicle, F4; One Count of Arson, F4; and One Count of Gross Abuse of a Corpse, F5. All Counts included Firearm Specifications.

Prosecutor Marx stated, "I could not be more pleased with the hard work and dedication shown by the Fairfield County Sheriff's Office Detective Bureau. They have, and continue to display a high degree of diligence and professionalism in connection with the investigation of this case." Miller is currently incarcerated in the Fairfield County Jail with a $1.5 million cash/surety or 10% bond. If convicted of Aggravated Murder, Miller faces a potential sentence of life in prison.
